Aims and scope: the journal Comptes rendus Chimie publishes original research papers (preliminary communications, short papers), accounts and historic chronicles, in all fields of chemistry (organic, inorganic, bioorganic, bioinorganic, organometallic, physical, solid state...). It intends to be a forum favouring interdisciplinary exchanges. High speed of publication can be achieved if proper care is given to the publication instructions.

Editorial director: Jean-François Bach.

Editor-in-chief: Pierre Braunstein (université Louis-Pasteur, Strasbourg, France).
